

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

Toshiba Transmission & Distribution Systems (India) Private Limited (TTDI) Designs, Develops, Manufactures and Supplies “Qualified Power Transmission and Distribution Equipment” is committed to protect the environment, prevent pollution and continually improve environmental performance by providing environmentally conscious products, services and environmental solutions.

TOSHIBA will

- Contribute for realization of sustainable society through environmentally conscious activities and by collaborating with interested parties & communities/society.
- Strive for continuous improvement and progress of environmental management system by harmonizing environmental activities with economic activities.
- Disclose environmental policies, information and enhance the environmental communications both internally and externally to facilitate mutual understanding both within Toshiba as well as outside Toshiba.
- To meet & fulfill all applicable compliance obligations
- Respecting the concerns of the interested parties by understanding their needs & expectations
- Identifying the Risks & Opportunities relevant to the Internal & External issues of the organization & significant efforts for elimination, reduction, prevention or mitigation of the Risks
- Mitigate the environmental impact in the manufacturing processes.
- Conserve precious natural resources, fuels, raw materials and energy.
- Promote green procurement to purchase environmental friendly materials and components.
- Involve all employees for practical contribution to the environment through their jobs and promote environmental activities.
- Ensure effective emergency preparedness and response.
- Develop green belt in the premises.