

ENERGY POLICY

Toshiba Transmission & Distribution Systems (India) Private Limited (TTDI)

Designs, Develops, Manufacture and Supplies the “Qualified Power Transmission and Distribution Equipment”.

TTDI is committed to use energy in the most efficient, cost-effective and environmentally responsible manner and continually improve Energy performance by ensuring energy efficient products, processes and facilities.

TOSHIBA is committed

- Contribute for the realization of a sustainable society through energy conscious activities and by collaborating with interested parties.
- Strive for continual improvement and progress of the energy management system.
- Setting energy Objectives and Targets, providing necessary resources and reviewing actual performance through internal and external audits for continual improvements in Energy Efficiency.
- Continual monitoring of Energy consumption at every point of use.
- Share the energy policy, information and enhance the energy performance communications both internally and externally to facilitate mutual understanding among interested parties
- Fulfill all applicable compliance obligations
- Respecting the concerns of the interested parties by understanding their needs & expectations
- Ensure design optimization for reduced energy consumption for products, plant & machinery and facilities
- Promote procurement of energy-efficient products and equipment
- Instilling a sense of duty in every employee towards energy conservation by recognizing and rewarding energy conservation initiatives taken by employees
- Deployment of energy policy at all levels of the organization and making it available to all stakeholders